

Professional Services

Building Inspection Services

- Residential/Commercial Inspections

MDES, Inc. employs certified building inspectors that are available to provide both residential and commercial inspections. These inspections will be based on both local ordinance and the applicable National Building Code.

Our inspectors have a wide range of experience in all types of building construction, and ready to assist your community .

